

Nature Inn Guest Speaker Series

Hear a dynamic speaker at least once a month as you enjoy the comfortable atmosphere of the Nature Inn at Bald Eagle State Park. January through May there will be a variety of guest speakers presenting, with topics ranging from solar powered adventures to amazing mushrooms. All programs will occur at the Multi-purpose Room of the Nature Inn. Programs are free, but preregistration is required. See below for more details!

Date	Time	Presentation
1/7/2012	6PM -7PM	Falconry at the Inn with the "Creature Teacher" Jody Wallace First, understand birds and then understand bird extremes-the falcon! Meet a real falcon and experience how birds of prey and people cooperate to hunt wild game.
1/28/2012	7:30 PM - 8:30 PM	Solar Powered Adventure with Cynthia Berger and Bill Carlsen Join these presenters for a presentation on the adventure of a lifetime: a ten-month, 6,500-mile journey on a 19-century style solar powered canal boat. Cynthia and Bill will speak about this rewarding voyage as they take you along on this virtual tour.
2/19/2012	7 PM - 8 PM	Birds of Centre County with Bob Snyder This presentation provides participants with an introduction to the diversity of resident and migrant birds that breed or pass through Centre County in the spring and fall. You will get to see beautiful photographs taken at Bald Eagle State Park.
3/10/2012	6 PM - 7 PM	Critters Beyond Your Back Door with Jack Hubly With over 20 years of experience, he will be accompanied by a variety of live animals including; mammals, birds and snakes, most of which, at one time or another, can be found in your back yard!
3/17/2012	7 PM - 8 PM	Owls of the Eastern U.S. and Canada with Wayne Laubscher What better way to learn about owls than from an experienced owl bander! Join your local owl bander, Wayne Laubscher, and learn about the various owls that may cross your path in the dark of the night.
4/13/2012	7 PM - 8 PM	The Butterfly Guy "Rick Mikula" You will be spellbound and amazed at his fast-paced and high-energy performances. Rick's slide programs will not only show the beauty of butterflies that he has found on his rainforest tours but also the wonderful creatures that wait right outside your door.
5/19/2012	1PM- 3PM	Wild Mushrooms with Bill Russell He has been offering wild mushroom seminars, walks and talks for over 50 years. The study of mushrooms has been his interest since early childhood and he wants to share it with you!
